The Gospel reading for the 4th Sunday of Easter

John 10 v 11-18

"I am the good shepherd. The good shepherd lays down his life for the sheep. The hired hand, who is not the shepherd and does not own the sheep, sees the wolf coming and leaves the sheep and runs away, and the wolf snatches them and scatters them. The hired hand runs away because a hired hand does not care for the sheep. I am the good shepherd. I know my own, and my own know me, just as the Father knows me, and I know the Father. And I lay down my life for the sheep. I have other sheep that do not belong to this fold. I must bring them also, and they will listen to my voice. So there will be one flock, one shepherd. For this reason the Father loves me, because I lay down my life in order to take it up again. No one takes it from me, but I lay it down of my own accord. I have power to lay it down, and I have power to take it up again. I have received this command from my Father."

Be a #ChurchChangemaker

Are you passionate about the local Church, have a desire to bring about change, and a drive to impact the future of the church in our diocese? Find out more at salisbury.anglican.org We want to encourage more people to stand for Diocesan Synod, the governing body of the Diocese of Salisbury. Whatever your experience or background, if you are aged 16 or over we want to hear your voice as we discuss key matters that impact our communities (such as climate, advocacy and justice) from the North Wessex Downs, all the way to the Channel Islands. If you care about the Church's impact on the world and your community, and would like to make a difference, then get involved
